welcome

One year ago, we lost a dear friend of ours. As we come upon the anniversary of his death we decided this day should not go by without acknowledgement. Chad loved cars & bikes & what could be better than everyone with a passion for cars & trucks & bikes coming together and sharing in the beauty of the day. So please come and spend a day in the sun with people who love their cars.

The Wedgwood Broiler has been operating in the same location since 1965. American food that reminds you of the food your mother made for you as a child. Specializing in steaks and our "special" martini's and manhattans. Owned and operated by Derek Cockbain who himself grew up in this very neighborhood.

Special thanks to Troy Anderson (also a neighborhood boy) who has spearheaded this idea. Troy is one of the owners of the King Street Bar and Oven which is located in Pioneer Square and serves a great pizza from their famous wood fired brick oven.
